

OFFRE D'EMPLOI – CDI FINE WINE MANAGER SENIOR (H/F)
--

Domaine Laroche is directly linked to the history of Chablis.

Domaine Laroche owns 90 hectares of vineyard situated amongst the best crus.

Its headquarters, the Obédiencerie of Chablis, reveals a heritage dating back from the Middle Ages when the Canons of Saint Martin of Tours were making wine. Saint Martin's relics were hidden in the Obédiencerie for a decade. This exceptional testimony is very much alive: Domaine Laroche still elaborates and ages its Premiers and Grands Crus in these historical cellars.

Its wines are a testimony of 1000 years of history!

Laroche also owns Mas la Chevalière in the Languedoc region with 40 hectares of two particularly unique terroirs: Roqua Blanca dedicated to red varieties and Peyroli for the Chardonnay.

The Laroche philosophy is based on a very special care of the terroirs in order for each of them to express its own particular characteristics in the glass. The importance of the ecological balance is crucial to maintain the vineyard heritage and to favour its durability. The respect of the soil, of the vine workers and of the environment are Laroche major commitments.

We are looking for a Senior Fine Wine Manager, an expert in wine with a solid commercial experience of at least 7 years, ideally in the catering industry, sommelier experienced. Somebody, totally bilingual who is seeking a long term commitment in the brand development.

You will have to:

- Assist the sales development, especially of our premiers and grands crus : collect and analyze the market information, identify the development positions, take part in the strategic directions.
- Assist the marketing department in the setup of actions: to be creative, share the field experience.
